Report on Holi Milan Samaroh

Date: 28.02.2026

Introduction

Holi Milan Samaroh was celebrated with great enthusiasm and joy at Swami Dharmabandhu College of Education in the college Seminar Hall. The programme was organized to spread the message of unity, harmony, and cultural richness among all members of the institution. The celebration witnessed the active participation of Principal Dr. Sarika Kumari, all Assistant Professors, non-teaching staff, and students of the college.

Dr. Sarika Kumari addressed the gathering and emphasized the importance of preserving cultural values and promoting mutual respect and cooperation within the academic community. She encouraged everyone to celebrate festivals with positivity and to maintain unity in diversity. The faculty members and students exchanged festive greetings and celebrated in a dignified and joyful manner.

Objectives of the Programme

1. To promote cultural awareness and understanding of the traditional significance of Holi among students and staff.
2. To strengthen unity and harmony among faculty members, staff, and students.
3. To encourage student participation in cultural and co-curricular activities.
4. To foster mutual respect and teamwork within the academic environment.
5. To create a joyful and stress-free atmosphere on the college campus through festive celebration

The programme commenced with a warm welcome address highlighting the cultural and social importance of Holi as a festival of colors, love, and togetherness. The celebration included cultural performances such as songs, dance presentations, and poetry recitations based on the theme of Holi. Participants expressed their happiness and creativity through vibrant performances, creating a lively and cheerful atmosphere.

The entire event was organized smoothly with the cooperation of the Assistant Professors and non-teaching staff. The Samaroh strengthened the bond among all members of the college family and reflected the spirit of unity and brotherhood.

Conclusion

The Holi Milan Samaroh was successfully conducted with great enthusiasm and cooperation from all members of Swami Dharmabandhu College of Education. The programme not only celebrated the vibrant festival of Holi but also reinforced the values of unity, respect, and cultural pride within the institution. Such celebrations contribute significantly to building a positive and inclusive academic environment.
