Report on International Women's Day

Seminar: Women Empowerment

Date: 10.03.2026

Introduction

On the occasion of International Women's Day, a Seminar on the topic "Women Empowerment" under the IQAC cell, was successfully organized at Swami Dharmabandhu College of Education, Hazaribag for the students of the B.Ed. Session 2025–27. The programme aimed to create awareness among students about the importance of empowering women in different spheres of life such as education, economic independence, health, social equality, and political participation.

The programme began with the ceremonial lighting of the lamp and offering of floral tribute to the photograph of Goddess Saraswati, symbolizing the pursuit of knowledge and wisdom. The Assistant Professors and students participated in this auspicious beginning of the programme.

Objectives of the Programme

1. To create awareness among students about the concept and importance of women empowerment.
2. To highlight the role of education in improving the status of women in society.
3. To encourage students to understand women's rights and constitutional provisions for their development.
4. To promote gender equality and social justice.
5. To motivate students to contribute towards building an inclusive and equitable society.

Programme Description

The Seminar was conducted in the college seminar hall in the presence of Assistant Professors and students. The programme provided a platform for students to express their thoughts, ideas, and perspectives on the importance of empowering women in society.

During the Seminar, students delivered inspiring speeches on various aspects of women empowerment, including women's education, economic independence, health and well-being, social equality, constitutional rights, and political participation. The participants spoke with confidence and enthusiasm, highlighting the challenges faced by women and the need to ensure equal opportunities and respect for them in every sphere of life.

The speeches reflected deep understanding, creativity, and strong commitment towards the cause of gender equality. The Seminar not only enhanced the public speaking skills of the students but also strengthened their awareness about the importance of women empowerment in building a progressive society.

Prize Winners

1st Prize: Muskan

2nd Prize: Pratap Kumar Das

3rd Prize: Rohit Das

4th Prize: Sagar Kumar Das

The winners were appreciated and congratulated for their outstanding performances and effective presentation skills.

The programme ended with a Vote of Thanks delivered by Dr. Ghanshyam Ram, who expressed his sincere gratitude to the faculty members, non-teaching staff, and students for their cooperation and enthusiastic participation in making the programme a success.

Finally, the programme concluded with the National Anthem, marking the formal end of the event.

Conclusion

The Seminar on Women Empowerment proved to be highly informative and inspiring for the students. It enhanced their awareness about gender equality and encouraged them to actively support the empowerment of women in society. Such academic activities play a vital role in developing confidence, communication skills, social awareness, and responsibility among future teachers.
