ABOUT HAZARIBAG

Hazaribag is a city in the Indian state of Jharkhand, known for its scenic beauty and historical significance, located on the Chhotanagpur plateau; it is surrounded by lush forests and hills, making it a popular spot for nature lovers. The name "Hazaribag" means "land of a thousand gardens"; it has a rich cultural heritage and was an important centre during the Indian freedom struggle. The city is also home to Hazaribag Wildlife Sanctuary, known for its diverse flora and fauna. With its pleasant climate and tranquil atmosphere, Hazaribag offers a refreshing escape from urban life.

ABOUT THE COLLEGE

Swami Dharmabandhu College of Education, located in Harhad, Mukundganj, Hazaribag, Jharkhand, was established in 2015 as a premier institution dedicated to nurturing skilled, committed, and morally upright educators. Owned and managed by the Jan Sahyog Trust, the college upholds the noble mission of preparing teachers who illuminate the world with knowledge and wisdom, dispelling ignorance and fostering a progressive society. With a strong emphasis on academic excellence and value-based education, the institution aims to produce educators who not only excel in teaching but also contribute to the moral and ethical development of future generations. The college is co-educational and offers B.Ed. (100 seats) and D.El.Ed. (100 seats) The college, with admissions conducted in accordance with the guidelines of Vinoba Bhave University, Hazaribag, and the Jharkhand Academic Council, Ranchi, recognised by the National Council for Teacher Education (NCTE), strictly adheres to the curriculum prescribed by its affiliating bodies. Committed to excellence in teacher education, Swami Dharmabandhu College of Education continues to shape the future of education by instilling knowledge, ethics, and leadership in aspiring educators.

ABOUT THE SEMINAR

The theme of the Indian Knowledge System (IKS) in the seminar is characterized by a holistic perspective that integrates the body, mind, and spirit, presenting knowledge as a unified whole rather than separate discipline. It reflects an interdisciplinary approach by bringing together diverse fields such as philosophy, science, medicine, arts, and literature. The sessions emphasize value-oriented learning, focusing on ethics, moral principles, and the concept of dharma as an essential part of knowledge. It also highlights experiential and practical learning, encouraging participants to understand concepts through observation, practice, and real-life application.

The sub-theme further promotes sustainability and harmony with nature, showcasing traditional practices that support eco-friendly living. It connects ancient wisdom with modern relevance by demonstrating how traditional knowledge can be applied to contemporary issues in health, education, and society. Additionally, the seminar theme represents cultural and spiritual depth, reflecting India's rich heritage and traditions, while also embracing inclusivity and diversity by covering various regional practices and schools of thought.

OBJECTIVES OF THE SEMINAR

- To create awareness about the richness and diversity of traditional Indian knowledge across fields like science, philosophy, medicine and arts.
- To understand the historical contributions of India in areas such as mathematics, astronomy, Ayurveda, architecture, and linguistics.
- To explore the relevance of IKS in modern times, especially in sustainable development, holistic health, and ethical living.
- To promote interdisciplinary learning by connecting ancient knowledge with contemporary academic subjects.
- To encourage critical thinking and research on ancient texts, practices, and indigenous knowledge systems.
- To preserve and promote cultural heritage by recognizing the value of traditional wisdom and practices.
- To inspire innovation by integrating traditional knowledge with modern science and technology.
- To develop a sense of pride and identity among students regarding India's intellectual and cultural legacy.
