REPORT ON INDIAN KNOWLEDGE SYSTEM

Organized by: Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), Swami Dharmabandhu College of Education, Hazaribag

Venue: Seminar Hall, Swami Dharmabandhu College of Education, Hazaribag

Date: 30 June 2026

A One-Day National Seminar on “Indian Knowledge System” was organized in Hybrid Mode by the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of Swami Dharmabandhu College of Education, Hazaribag, on 30 June 2026. The seminar aimed to explore the rich heritage of Indian knowledge traditions and their relevance in contemporary education and society.

The Inaugural Session was graced by Prof. (Dr.) Chandra Bhushan Sharma, Vice-Chancellor, Vinoba Bhave University, Hazaribag, as the Chief Guest. Sri Surendra Prasad Kushwaha, Registrar, and Dr. Pankaj Kumar Manjhi, Examination Controller, Vinoba Bhave University, attended as distinguished guests. The guests were warmly welcomed with floral greetings and mementos.

In their addresses, the dignitaries emphasized the significance of the Indian Knowledge System in shaping holistic education. They highlighted that Indian traditions promote not only intellectual development but also ethical values, spirituality, social responsibility, and human welfare. They also stressed the importance of integrating Indian Knowledge Systems into the framework of the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020.

The seminar featured eminent speakers including Prof. (Dr.) P. N. Singh, Prof. (Dr.) A. K. Pandey, and Prof. (Dr.) Mrityunjay Prasad. They delivered insightful lectures on Indian philosophy, Vedic literature, Yoga, Ayurveda, and the educational relevance of traditional Indian wisdom. Their presentations inspired participants to appreciate and apply the principles of Indian knowledge in academic and professional life.

The Valedictory Session was presided over by Prof. (Dr.) Sadique Razzaque, Proctor, Vinoba Bhave University, while Prof. (Dr.) Tanvir Yunus delivered the concluding address. They emphasized the need to preserve, promote, and disseminate India's rich intellectual and cultural heritage for future generations.

The seminar witnessed active participation from teacher educators, researchers, B.Ed. trainees, and academicians from various institutions. The event proved to be highly informative, enriching, and successful. The seminar concluded with a vote of thanks and appreciation to all participants and organizers.
